Good morning!

“Successful people are not gifted; they just work hard and succeed on purpose.” ~ G.K. Nielson

The IBDP accreditation evaluation went extremely well. The accreditors were very impressed by the work, commitment and achievements of our IB team. We expect to receive the reaccreditation letter very soon. It is always rewarding to have one's work acknowledged by external evaluators. Well done, everyone. Congratulations!

During the coming spring break, we will be celebrating Easter and Eid El-Fitr. It is time to reflect on our behavior and day-to-day conduct towards others, count our blessings and be grateful for all our fortunes. I wish you all a happy family holiday.
