Guided by our values, Respect, Responsibility, and Relationship, and by the promotion of lifelong learning, LWIS-City International School will honor the special gifts in every child and support all learners.

- The homeroom teacher will only assign class representatives who have been elected by the absolute majority of the class. Elections should take place in the presence of the homeroom teacher.

President of the Student Council

- Any senior school class representative has the right to run for the position of the president of the student council.
- The student body will elect the president by a majority vote.
- The only requirements needed for a student to be eligible for the position of president of the student council are the following: a cumulative average of 70% and a clean disciplinary record.
- If at any time, the majority (>50%) of the class representatives agrees that the elected president is not executing his or her responsibilities satisfactorily, they have the right to re-elect a new president under the supervision of the supervisor of the student council.

SCHOOL RULES, REGULATIONS AND DISCIPLINE

School rules are intended to ensure the safety and welfare of pupils and the smooth functioning of the school community; however, the following is not an exhaustive listing of all the situations and circumstances that may arise, which would then be handled on individual basis. Some measures to be taken are counseling, assigned tasks, community service, removal from classes, detention, suspension, and expulsion.

Note: A teacher can assign an essay for a particular student to be done during detention.

(Informal hearings may be delayed temporarily in instances where the student's continued presence poses a danger to other students or a threat to the educational process.)
- Formal hearing: a hearing in which the student is given an opportunity to contest allegations, which could result in expulsion. (In such cases, students and their parents are entitled to a statement of charges in writing prior to the hearing. This statement should also advise students of their entitlement to witness on their behalf during the hearing.)
- Disciplinary Committee: a committee headed by the Principal or Vice Principal, consisting of the Vice Principal, Academic Coordinator, Head of Section, counselor, one or more teachers, and a student representative. A student representative may not be included when personal information about the student (facing the disciplinary committee) will be discussed at the meeting.

Repeat offenders will be referred to the Head of Section.
Attendance	Students are expected to attend classes daily and on time. Students are also expected to attend school day trips and activities.	School: In case of 4 absences per trimester for ill health, the student will need to provide a full medical diagnosis, and a medical report for any further absences; otherwise, the absence will be considered unexcused. In such cases, phone calls from parent(s)/guardian will not be accepted as an excuse for ill health. In case of travel, parent(s)/guardian are advised to use the holidays on the school calendar, avoiding days before or after the holidays, as absences on these days will be considered unexcused. For travels during school days, in case of emergency, prior arrangements must be made with the school; otherwise absences will be automatically considered as unexcused. Upon reaching 20 days of absence, further absences will not be excused, except in cases of hospitalization of the student and death in the family (not extended family). Note: an unexcused absence from school warrants a zero on all work done that day, including tests. Class: An unexcused absence from class warrants an immediate detention. 5 unexcused absences from any subject per trimester warrant that the student fails the course. Detention: Absence from detention warrants a 1 Day suspension + 2 detentions . Trips: Unexcused absence from a one-day field trip may result in a 1-day suspension. Repeat offenders will be referred to the Dean of Students...
